Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a - NEOEDD is organized by intergovernmental agreement between Baker, Union and Wallowa Counties according to Oregon Revised Statutes Chapter 190. As organizing entities, the Baker, Union and Wallowa county commissioners each appoint up to six members of the board. Two commissioners from each county serve as members of the NEOEDD board. They are therefore in the dual role of serving on the board and appointing individuals to the board of directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The draft 990 was circulated to board members via email one day prior to filing the report. If board members want to make any changes to the 990 that are not discovered prior to filing, an amended return will be completed and filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Many board members are also elected officials or government officials who are familiar with conflict of interest rules and attend government ethics training as a routine part of their other positions. This training is also available for all board members. Board members are occasionally in a situation where they might have a perceived conflict of interest. In these situations, the board member would declare a perceived conflict of interest and not vote on the issue. NEOEDD prohibits board members or their families from applying for loan funds while active on the board and for two years following the conclusion on their board service. The board members and staff are all aware of this restriction and staff would not process a loan application if the business was owned by a board member or former board member who met this criteria.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - NEOEDD hired the Local Government Personnel Institute to identify similar organizations in Oregon and establish comparable wages for all employees in the fall of 2017. The Executive Committee reviewed the salary survey and made a plan to increase salary for nearly all staff as salaries were generally under the minimum amounts paid at other organizations. The salary survey is updated annually by increasing the comparable salaries by the increase in the Consumer Price Index.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - NEOEDD's budget documents are available on our website. NEOEDD's audits are submitted to the Government Audit Clearinghouse and the Oregon Secretary of State. NEOEDD's 990 will also be placed on our website - www.neoedd.org. Other financial and policy documents are available upon request.

Explanation

The late filing is due to human error. COVID-19 has impacted nearly every aspect of our work and this includes staff being overworked and under mental stress. NEOEDD's Executive Director thought that she filed a request for extension in October. She recently received the audit for the year which meant the 990 could now be filed. When she started the process of creating the filing for the year, she found out that she hadn't submitted the request for extension. She has since created a calendar reminder to file the request for extension in August every year through 2030.
